

Chapter 2: Kings and Slaves

Exodus begins with a look at the exalted and lowly. Pharaoh leads his people down a wicked path and the Israelites bear his mistreatment.

Theme: We tend to view ourselves improperly as kings or as slaves

The Mirror:

How is God using or has God used your story to show the world that His nature of love and deliverance to the world?

Consider...

the hardships you've experienced.

the open doors and opportunities you've received.

the situations or people groups that God has placed on your heart.

The dream you've always harbored in your heart.

Ask...

God to reveal to you how He will use these hardships and open doors for His glory.

God what fears and failures from your past are holding you back from stepping toward what God has in store for you, for His purposes.

